PLEASE REMEMBER TO PRAY FOR THIS MONTH'S MINISTRY ACTIVITIES

From March 23-25, 2012, Jesus to the Nations will host Atlantic Canada's Mission Conference at the Seton Academic Centre, Mount Saint Vincent University (166 Bedford Hwy, Halifax, Nova Scotia).

Churches, ministries and individuals from New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Newfoundland and Labrador will come together for the 13th annual inter-denominational Christian gathering that highlights the global response to the Great Commission (Matthew 28:16-20), and declare Jesus and His love to the nations and the peoples of the world (John 3:16).

The conference runs on Friday night, all day Saturday, and Sunday afternoon. It is open to all including children and youth; and admission is free. The weekend will host five worship and plenary sessions, over 20 seminars to choose from on Saturday morning, a Saturday late night concert, and over 60+ exhibitors from different mission agencies and organizations.

This year's plenary speakers include: Shane Claiborne, Dr. K. P. Yohannan and Freda Smallwood. Shane Claiborne is the founding partner of The Simple Way, a faith community in inner city Philadelphia that has helped birth and connect radical faith communities around the world. Dr. K. P. Yohannan is the founder and president of Gospel for Asia, a Christian mission organization that has brought the Good News of Christ to millions in South Asia over the last three decades. Freda Smallwood, with her late husband, formerly served as a teacher and established eye-related medical ministries in Central Asia for over 30 years.

The Saturday late night concert will be with Fresh I.E. – a Canadian Christian Hip-Hop artist and an inner-city pastor from Winnipeg, Manitoba. For more information about the conference, including the volunteer registration form, visit our website at
