COMMUNITY

May 10th – Worship Evening at Faith Tabernacle. Enjoy an amazing night of worship at Faith Tabernacle in Halifax. Guest worship leader Brian Doerksen and Ryan McAllistar. For more information, visit <http://www.uniteinworship.com/>

May 27th – CARE CENTER PRESENTATION

EMO (the Emergency Measures Organization) will be giving an information session on EMO Comfort Centers at Fall River Baptist Church on Tuesday, May 27th, at 7pm. EMO Comfort Centers are designated places where people can come for help in the case of a natural disaster or emergency. If you would be interested in coming to see how we might use the Open Gate in this way to serve our community or would like to be better informed as to how to prepare your family for an emergency situation, please RSVP to Jeremy or Judy by May 5th. It would be great to form a team that would be ready to love our community in this practical way.

There will be a work party morning to clean up the yard at The Open Gate. Watch for details to come.

 Nova Scotia's flower symbol. The delicate pink mayflower, blooming in the forest glades in early spring, signifies Nova Scotia's coming of age. As far back as 1820 the mayflower emerged as a native patriotic symbol, suggesting high achievement in the face of adversity. The humble evergreen from the native countryside blossoms amid the last remaining snows of winter.				1	2 Parents and Tots 9:30-11:30 AM The Open Gate	3
